

Congress workshops

The 7th Congress workshops will cover the 3 main themes of the meeting; evidence-based colposcopy practice, ultrasound in practice and hands-on endoscopy.

The aims of these workshops are to emphasise on the practical elements and enable the delegates to develop and enhance their skills whether related to interpretation of scientific evidence, endoscopic surgery or ultrasound image recognition and interpretation.

The workshops are aimed at those who are in training as well as those already established as specialists or consultants but are updating their skills or developing new ones. The workshops are also suitable for nurses developing colposcopy, ultrasound or hysteroscopy skills as an expansion of their roles.

A delegate can register for only one workshop and will receive the relevant certificate of attendance at the end of the day.

Welcome Message

Dear colleagues

It gives us great pleasure to welcome you from around the world to the 7th Annual Congress of the International College of Gynaecological Imaging (ICGI) at the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists in London. The theme of this meeting is "Imaging and Ambulatory Gynaecology"

We have put together an exciting scientific programme in a multitude of fields involving imaging and ambulatory procedures in gynaecology. Imaging techniques such as ultrasound, colposcopy, hysteroscopy, magnetic resonance imaging have become an integral and indispensable part of the clinical process, both for diagnosis and guiding therapy. In the UK professions allied to medicine are increasingly integrated in patient care pathways and indeed are often taking a leading role. With this in mind, we will welcome a number of them as invited speakers in the congress workshops and plenary sessions.

We look forward to seeing you in London.
